MENTORING PROGRAM

What is the Mentoring Program?

The mentoring program is a program for Fresno State Students to learn from mentors.

This program is to help students gain life skills, experiential knowledge, and receive feedback from a mentor within the agricultural industry.

What is expected of the Mentee?

A mentee should be self-reflective and aware, stay in contact with mentor, attend any arranged meetings on time and in a professional manner, and share professional and personal goals with your mentor.

What is the relationship between a Mentor and Mentee?

The mentor-mentee relationship is a relationship in which a student gains the benefit of someone who knows the industry well enough and has life experience to guide the student.

How do you become a Mentee?
